Objectives of the Union

We, the students of NSCAD University, recognizing the need to speak with one voice in asserting our legitimate needs and concerns, wish to express our support for a Union of NSCAD University students whose basic aims will be as follows:

1. To organize students on a democratic, cooperative basis in advancing our own interests, and in advancing the interests of our community.
2. To provide a common framework within which students can communicate, exchange information, and share experience, skills, and ideas.
3. To ensure the effective use and distribution of resources such as the health plan and finances acquired from the Union.
4. To bring students together and discuss and cooperatively achieve change.
5. To facilitate cooperation among students and develop a sense of community with our peers.
6. To articulate the desire of students to fulfill these duties, and be accorded the rights of citizens in our society and in the international community.
7. To achieve our ultimate goal; a system of post secondary education which is accessible to all, which is of high quality, which is nationally planned, which recognizes the legitimacy of student representation and validity of student rights, and whose role in society is clearly recognized and appreciated.
8. To recognize the need for belonging to the National Student Organization and the Provincial Student Organization in achieving quality, accessible education.

9. To work within a framework of anti oppression as stated below
The Student Union of Nova Scotia College of Art and Design (SUNSCAD) recognizes that there are power imbalances in all social relations. By anti-oppression we mean the practice of combating all forms of oppressions based on race, ethnicity, creed, class, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, immigration status, country of origin, religion, mental health status, age, and ability. These power inequities, which are socially constructed or learned ideologies create hierarchical relationships that benefit dominant or privileged individuals or groups, while marginalizing others, either implicitly or explicitly.

Oppression occurs when a person or group is excluded from opportunities for self development, disallowed full participation in society, and/or denied equal or equitable rights of the dominant group. Such limitations are not related to individual talent, merit or failure, but because of identity or membership to a particular group of people. Oppressions based on race, ethnicity, creed, class, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, immigration status, country of origin, religion, mental health status, age, and ability intersect and are interrelated.

Aspects of social differences can't be understood fully without considering them in relation to each other. Individuals and/or groups can simultaneously experience privileges and oppressions from more than one source of their identity. Anti-oppression practice recognizes that identity and oppression is complex, takes many forms and exists through intersecting relationships.

Power and privilege are relative to one's location or position in society. Deconstructing and 'unlearning' oppression is possible by engaging in ongoing conscious and active processes of challenging previously held personal and organizational values, beliefs, perceptions, and attitudes. Oppression is learned and therefore anti-oppression can be viewed as a process of identifying, deconstructing, and trying to 'unlearn' privilege.

SUNSCAD recognizes that as a public educational institution, NSCAD is not exempt from systemic forms of oppression. By acknowledging systematic oppression individuals can locate their positions and begin to challenge and deconstruct it.

This requires all students to acknowledge the powers and privileges associated with their identities. Strategies for change require that we all share responsibility to challenge oppression. SUNSCAD strives to implement this framework of anti-oppression in all the work we do to make NSCAD a more equitable and accessible place for everyone.

In the consideration of these needs, the students of NSCAD University formed the Student Union of NSCAD University in November 1970

Statement of Purpose

The Student Union of NSCAD University exists to perform the following functions:

1. To promote the artistic, educational, social, professional, and recreational activities of the students.
2. To represent, promote and defend the common interests of students.
3. To serve as a medium of communication between students and the administration.
4. To promote, coordinate and direct the activities of students.
5. To represent students on a Provincial and National level.
6. To do all other things that are incidental or conducive to these purposes.

Definitions

Council

The individuals holding elected positions within the Union.

Discrimination

Discrimination refers to intentional or unintentional treatment which imposes burdens, obligations, or disadvantages on the basis of grounds protected by the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act and for which there is no legally justifiable reason. The Nova Scotia Human Rights Act protects against discrimination on the basis of: age; race; colour; religion; creed; sex; sexual orientation; physical disability or mental disability; an irrational fear of contracting an illness or disease; ethnic, national, or aboriginal origin; family status; marital status; source of income; and political belief, affiliation, or activity.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a display, by word or deed, of sexual attentions towards another person of a nature which may be reasonably considered to be vexatious, abusive, or threatening. Without limiting the generality of that definition, sexual attention shall be deemed to be "vexatious, abusive, or threatening" if the harasser, directly or indirectly, offers the harassee an advantage or opportunity, real or perceived, in return for sexual favours, or directly or indirectly threatens or imposes on the harassed any denial of advantages or opportunity. Sexual harassment may include unwanted sexual attention or solicitation which has the effect of interfering with an individual's work or participation, or which creates a negative emotional or psychological environment for work or participation within SUNSCAD.

Examples

Acts of sexual harassments may include but are not limited to:

- explicit or direct invitations to engage in sexual activities;
- leering, staring, or other sexually oriented gestures;
- unwelcome or unsolicited remarks, jokes or innuendos about a person's gender, appearance or sexuality;
- sexist jokes or innuendos concerning sexual activities;
- the display of inappropriate pornographic or lewd pictures or cartoons;
- unnecessary physical contact including touching, patting or pinching;
- continuing inquiries or comments about someone's sex life;
- remarks jokes or innuendoes about a person's body, attire, age, marital status, gender, sexuality, sexual orientation, perceived sexual orientation or perceived gender identity or orientation;

Although sexual harassment typically involves a person in a superior position as the initiator, it is recognized that people in subordinate or equal positions may also be initiators. People of any gender can be harassed by members of any gender.

Shall

The performance of an act or the fulfillment of any requirement is compulsory.

Staff

Any individual employed by the Union.

Student

Bylaw 12: Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination

SUNSCAD prohibits acts of discrimination and any form of harassment and as such; this policy applies to all staff and students who are active members of SUNSCAD, on and off Campus.

PROCEDURE

If any member of the NSCAD community believes that they have been subjected to or witnessed an act of discrimination or harassment by a member of the NSCAD community, they should first submit a complaint following the procedure outlines in NSCAD's Discrimination & Harassment Policy.

Should the harasser be a SUNSCAD executive or council or staff member, the harasee should submit a complaint to any executive or council member on SUNSCAD. Once a complaint has been submitted, the following procedure will occur:

1. The harasser will be notified, and a meeting will be organized with the harasser by two (2) executive/council members of SUNSCAD, one (1) of which must be an executive member. The harasser will be issued a verbal and written warning about the offence. If the act of harassment or discrimination is deemed severe in step-one, a grievance committee will be struck within one (1) month of the complaint for a formal investigation. The acceptance of the written warning is acknowledgement and admittance to the offence.
2. If the harasser commits a second offence, SUNSCAD will follow impeachment protocol. The acceptance of their removal is acknowledgement and admittance to the offence.

In order to contest the allegations against them, the harasser must ask for a formal investigation to be opened, using the grievance committee. This can be done at any point throughout the process of an accusation of harassment or discrimination. A grievance committee will be struck within two (2) weeks of the harassers request.

Records of all cases shall be confidentially maintained by SUNSCAD's Resource Coordinator and only active committee members shall have access to these files, on a need-to know basis, based on the relevancy of the file to the case they are currently working on. One of the two (2) SUNSCAD executive/council members that were present during the meeting will then submit, within one (1) week of the meeting, a report of the incident which will include the complaint, the nature of the complaint, and the written warning. If a second offence were to occur, the second complaint, the nature of the complaint, and the date of the harassers removal from their position will be added to the original report.

All records of the incident will remain anonymous, with the exception of the report.

Bylaw 13: Anti-Oppression Training

To follow SUNSCAD's objective to work within a framework of anti-oppression, all executive and council members of SUNSCAD are required to complete anti-oppression training within three months of being appointed to their position. (Change timeline from 1 month to earliest opportunity) The anti-oppression training must be completed using an organization approved by the Canadian Federation of Students (CFS/FCEEÉ). Information on approved organizations can be requested through a CFS/FCEEÉ organizer at the time of your appointment.

Should an executive or council member chooses to rerun, and is reappointed, they will be required to complete the anti-oppression training within three months of their reappointment.

The training will be paid by SUNSCAD but Executive and council members will not be paid for their time during the training. If a member cannot attend the training provided by SUNSCAD, they will have to schedule and pay for their own training.

Failure to complete the anti-oppression training within the allotted time frame will result in the executive/council member's first warning as stated in the Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination bylaw.

Extensions to the timeline of this bylaw will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Bylaw 14: Conflict of Interest

Any decision maker who believes they are in a conflict of interest should proceed as follows

- Declare the Conflict of Interest immediately upon becoming aware of it.
- Leave the meeting when the issue is discussed, to avoid any possibility of influencing the votes of other members on the issue.
- Avoid influencing the decision in any way (at the meeting or outside the meeting). The minutes should indicate that the member declared a Conflict of Interest and was absent while the issue was discussed.
- A member who is not sure whether he or she has a real or potential conflict of interest, should declare this concern and a motion to have the individual removed from the discussion should be held.
- If a member notices a perceived conflict of interest that another member hasn't disclosed. That member has a right to immediately motion for said member to be removed from the discussion and vote on whether or not said member is in a conflict of interest.

- E. In person voting: Any candidate may provide a scrutinizer, at their own cost, to any poll where votes could be cast for them.
- F. In person voting: Each candidate reserves the right to have a scrutinizer present during the ballot counts.
- G. The Returning Officer shall reject any ballot papers that:
 - i. In person voting: Are not the official ballot form chosen by the Chief Returning Officer. Are marked in any way that identifies the voter who filled out the ballot.
- H. There shall be no voting by proxy.

A ballot is spoiled if:

- i. It contains votes for more than the maximum number of candidates.
- ii. It contains a mark in more than one block which makes unclear the intention of the voter.
- iii. No clearly marked vote is discernible.
- iv. In reason voting: A mark is present that identifies the voter
